Withdrawal right

If you're an EEA-based consumer of digital content, services, or goods, and you've agreed to our Terms of Service, then EEA consumer laws provide you with a legal guarantee. Under this guarantee, we're liable for any lack of conformity that you discover:

- within two years of the delivery of goods or the one-time supply of digital content or services
- at any time during the "continuous" supply of digital content or services

Your national laws may provide an even longer guarantee. Your rights under these legal guarantees aren't limited by any other commercial guarantees that we provide. If you want to make a guarantee claim, please contact us.

If you're an EEA-based consumer, this service is by law subject to an automatic right of withdrawal for 14 days from the date of the conclusion of the contract. To exercise the right of withdrawal, you must inform us (Google Commerce Limited, c/o Customer Support, Gordon House, Barrow Street, Dublin 4, Ireland, country specific telephone numbers to support consumers at the end of this page, cert-support@google.com) of your decision to withdraw from this contract by an unequivocal statement (e.g. a letter sent by post or an e-mail). You don't need to give a reason for your withdrawal and your withdrawal is within the deadline if you send us the withdrawal request before the withdrawal period expires.

Below you will find country specific telephone numbers to support consumers.
